Map	1:10,000 printed on waterproof paper. A3 for most courses, possibly A4 for White – Orange. Gorse and other minor updates Jan 2012 by Robin Sloan.
Registration	Registration 10:30 – 12.30. Starts from 11am – 1pm
Timing	SportIdent timing will be used. Free to hire for the day but £30 will be charged if you lose it.
Terrain	Mixture of woodland and open hillside with many areas of fast running. A programme of gorse clearing has opened up new sections of the hill, and recent fires have improved the runnability of the heather. In the event of bad weather waterproofs may be compulsory.
Facilities	Basic/limited toilets near Parking. Clean/warm public toilets in Earlston, next to bus stop on south side of the main street. Also toilets at Milestone Garden Centre at the south end of Newtown St Boswells. They have a nice coffee shop for after your run.
Dogs	Allowed, but must be on leads – sheep in the area.
Officials	Planner: Rob Cranston Organiser: John Tullie Controller: John Biggar (LINOC)
